Press Release

H.E. Mr. Jan Kohout, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic has arrived in the country today for a two day official visit leading a 16 member delegation. Also accompanying the Minister is a 15 member business delegation.

While in the country, the Minister and the delegation will call on Hon'ble Prime Minister, meet the Foreign Minister and other senior government officials. The business delegation will meet with officials of BCCI and members of the business community. They will also visit places of historic and cultural importance.

Diplomatic relations between Bhutan and the Czech Republic was established in December 2011. This is the first ministerial level visit from the Czech Republic and the visit is expected to further strengthen relations between the two countries.
