Press Release

Aum Pema Choden, Ambassador of Bhutan to Maldives, presented credentials to the President of Maldives H.E. Mr. Abdulla Yameen Abdul Gayoom on 25 August 2014.

President Yameen welcomed the appointment of the new Ambassador and said that the two countries should further explore cooperation in bilateral, regional and multilateral areas. He recalled the many high level visits between the two countries which had further strengthened bilateral relations.

Aum Pema Choden conveyed the warm greetings of His Majesty the King and the Prime Minister to the President and the people of Maldives, and expressed her commitment to further promote the already close and friendly relations between Bhutan and Maldives. She agreed that the two countries should continue to cooperate in areas of shared interest and priority.

Aum Pema Choden is the tenth Ambassador of Bhutan to Maldives since the establishment of diplomatic relations between the two countries in 1984.
