Celebration of Birth Anniversary of His Majesty the King Jigme Khesar Namgyel Wangchuck

The Royal Bhutanese Embassy in Dhaka celebrated the 35th Birth Anniversary of His Majesty the King on 21st February 2015.

The day was marked with the hoisting of the National Flag, lighting of butter lamp, and cutting of cake with the students and Bhutanese community at the Royal Bhutanese Embassy.

On the invitation of the Ministry of Culture, Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, the Royal Bhutanese Embassy also joined the people of Bangladesh in observing the International Mother Language Day and Martyrs' Day, which fall on the same day.

The Embassy, with the help of the Bhutanese community, participated in the International Language Fair at the Bangladesh National Museum where visitors to the Bhutanese stall were taught to write their names in Dzongkha.

The Royal Bhutanese Embassy also joined the celebration of the Martyrs' Day at the Central Shaheed Minar where the Bhutanese community performed a 'boedra' song.

The day ended with a dinner at the Royal Bhutanese Embassy among students and the Bhutanese community.
