Sub: Hon Prime Minister attends the Singapore Summit

On the invitation of Temasek Foundation, Singapore and the Government of Singapore, Hon Prime Minister Dasho Tshering Tobgay visited Singapore from 15-16 September 2017 to attend the Singapore Summit 2017. The Summit was organised by Temasek Foundation, the Monetary Authority of Singapore, the Government Investment Corp (GIC) Singapore and the Government of Singapore.

During the visit, Hon Prime Minister met the Prime Minister of Singapore H.E. Mr. Lee Hsien Loong and the Foreign Minister H.E. Dr. Vivian Balakrishnan where they discussed various areas of Bhutan-Singapore bilateral cooperation and international and regional issues of mutual interests. Hon PM also met with the Chairman of Temasek Foundation Mr. Lim Boon Heng and discussed further collaboration with Temasek Foundation.

Hon PM addressed the Singapore Summit as a Distinguished Guest Speaker, outlining Bhutan-Singapore relations, Bhutan's understanding of contemporary international issues, sustainable development and Bhutan's GNH philosophy. Hon PM conveyed the warm greetings and best wishes of His Majesty the King to the Summit participants and people of Singapore at large.

The Singapore Summit, established since 2012, is one of the foremost events for business and thought leaders from Asia and the world to discuss opportunities and challenges for regional and global growth, prosperity and stability.
