

Royal Bhutanese Consulate General
Jilika Path, Kalakhetra, Panjabari Road
Guwahati – 781037, Kamrup
Assam, India

RBCG/GHY/MISC-09/123

18 December 2018

Press Release

The Royal Bhutanese Consulate General in Guwahati celebrated the 111th National Day at Hotel Vivanta by Taj.

Speaking at the event, His Excellency Mr. Phub Tshering, Consul General of Bhutan in Guwahati said that the Indo-Bhutan relationship has further strengthened under the dynamic, visionary and farsighted leadership of benevolent Kings. Consul General reiterated the support Bhutan is receiving from the Government of India. He shared that the Consulate is working towards further strengthening the excellent relationship between Bhutan and India, particularly with the North-Eastern states.

The Chief Guest of the event, His Excellency Mr. Ravi Capoor, Additional Chief Secretary, Government of Assam said that under the leadership of visionary and farsighted kings, Bhutan is developing at very fast pace. He also mentioned that Bhutan's developmental philosophy of the Gross National Happiness is a game changing definition of economic development in this materialistic world.

The event was attended by senior government officials of Assam state, senior government officials and business people from Samdrup Jongkhar Dzongkhag, friends of Bhutan in Assam and Bhutanese people living in Guwahati. Cultural troupe from Samdrup Jongkhar Dzongkhag staged a cultural program during the event.

RBCG, GHY

